

HARVEY A. MEIER, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR
ANC CEO & Tribal Administrator Trusted Ally™

Do You Have Someone in Your Corner?

CEOs, Tribal Administrators, and top executives often have no close peers and colleagues – someone in their corner they can trust and confide in without feeling some apprehension. It can be lonely at the top. Second-guessing can creep in, undermining the ability to make good decisions, lead with confidence, and make the right judgment calls.

Imagine having a trusted ally who understands the challenges and concerns you experience. Someone you can confide in and talk to in complete confidence, without reservations. A valuable resource who understands the challenges, trepidations, and concerns you experience.

For over 30 years, I have counseled countless executives to overcome adversity and successfully lead in the face of personal and professional challenges. Like you, I've sat in the CEO and top executive chairs making tough decisions on a daily basis. My role is to guide you to achieve your top priorities, so you get to your next level of success.

As your trusted ally, I am in your corner 24/7.

- Being your confidential sounding board.
- Listening carefully, giving only non-judgmental and impartial counsel.
- Offering constructive, practical, positive advice.
- Guiding you to exercise good judgment and sound decision-making.
- Presenting unbiased perspectives and strategic solutions to challenging problems.
- Exhibiting how to develop and execute creative strategies to achieve your goals.
- Inspiring you to lead with confidence and to be the best leader you can be.
- Augmenting your ability to reduce stress.
- Honoring your privacy in all matters personal and professional.
- Treating you with dignity, respect, and honor.

How we work together:

Using confidential video conferences or phone sessions on a weekly basis as needed, together we'll discuss professional and personal topics of any scope. I am also available by phone 24/7 for when critical situations arise outside of regularly scheduled meeting times.

Together we navigate leadership challenges, Board and Council relations, and business matters with certainty and creativity. My professional guidance will reinforce your best judgment and enable you to begin and end each day knowing you have made the right decisions for the circumstances at hand.
